Note: Applicants should themselves obtain written references from two musicians of standing and should submit them by post to the Trust's Linlithgow Address.

9. Your Recording:

Applicants should submit two copies of a CD recording with this application which should contain two or three movements from works in contrasting styles, recorded live and unedited and lasting not more than half an hour. IT IS VITAL THAT YOUR RECORDING IS OF GOOD QUALITY. WE HAVE BEEN UNABLE TO PASS GROUPS TO THE AUDITION STAGE IN THE PAST PURELY DUE TO RECORDINGS BEING OF POOR QUALITY AND THEREFORE IMPOSSIBLE TO JUDGE AS CAREFULLY AS WE WOULD LIKE.

The recording should be submitted along with this application form and posted to the Awards Scheme Administrator at the address shown at the end of this form. Please DO NOT send Mini-Disc or video recordings. We are NOT able to return your recordings. If you wish, you may add here any remarks about your recording:

10. Aims and Ambitions Applicants are invited to set out a brief statement of their aims, ambitions and approach to music and their professional careers:

11. Any other information The Trustees would be pleased to have any other information, press cuttings, reviews etc which applicants would like to have taken into consideration:

12. From which source did you learn about the Tunnell Trust Awards?

13. The Tunnell Trust hosts an annual residential chamber music course in Scotland. The course normally takes place each May/June. The emphasis is very much on developing ensemble playing and gaining valuable performing experience. The Course is by invitation only following the Awards Scheme auditions. Please state if you would be interested in attending the Course which is free to all students attending. (View our website for further information about the Course)
